

Ovation Production Company

Lewisville Theatre

This course builds on the background established in Theatre Arts II. Students will continue to perfect and delve into the crafts of acting, directing and playwriting. Students will prepare college and professional auditions. Students will be expected to read at least one play script per nine weeks. They will analyze and interpret the script. Students will perform in at least one, likely more than one, classroom scene per nine weeks. Students will create a monologue and scene portfolio to be kept throughout the year. Students will also create a professional resume and portfolio. Students will research college theatre programs. This class will take part in at least one public performance each semester.

Other requirements include:

- Participation
- Memorized Performances
- Mandatory participation in all departmental performances (Must accept all roles offered for shows chosen for the respective classes.)
- Attendance of a minimum of two live theatre performances per semester is required (One each 9 weeks)
- Participate in all UIL Theatrical Events
- Work hours in shop as needed (Students are responsible for clocking in and out)

Elements of the Course (Curriculum)

Grading Policy

Minor Grades 40%-

- Homework, Participation, Quizzes, Performance
- Participation, Group Work
- Test, Project, Performance, Evaluation, Play Attendance/Credits
- Written and performance elements

Major Grades 60%-

Final Exam 15%

Extra Credit-

- 1 Major Grade- Play Attendance/Credit Form
- Late Work-
- Follows Campus Procedure

Play Credit Opportunities

One Play credit is required each nine weeks. The following can be considered for a play credit. If you have trouble coming up with admission to productions, please see your instructor well in advance (at least 4 weeks) of the due date to be considered for alternate rehearsal attendance that can equal the credit. Additional time commitments may be needed for these assignments. However, there are many opportunities for free admission during the spring semester to see plays at within the district during UIL competitions.

- Attendance of any LHS Theatrical Production
- Attendance of any community, professional or college Theatrical Production
- Attendance of any LISD High School Theatrical Production
- Attendance of any area High School Theatrical Production

**OVATION STUDENTS ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND ONE LISD SCHOOL PRODUCTION PER SEMESTER!

Script Subject Matter

Students are expected to use discretion in editing scripts. Please refer to guidelines listed in acknowledgement form.

Supply List:

- Pencil and Pen
- A type of notebook to take notes dedicated to theatre ONLY!
- Highlighter
- Kleenex

Guidelines/Procedures

- Remain quiet, attentive & in places when teacher talks/gives notes, or others speak/perform.
- Bring supplies everyday
- No food, gum or drink allowed in class or rehearsal
- Stay on task
- Display courtesy and respect for others at all times
- Be in places ready for class to begin as soon as you enter the room. When in the auditorium, report to the stage DIRECTLY! Do not take seats in the audience.
- Jacket, purses, etc... must not be on your desk or lap.
- Cell phones, laptops, tablets, and other technology may only be used with teacher permission. They should be in backpack not on table, pocket or lap. If you do not have a backpack, a secure place will be provided for you. CELL PHONES ARE NOT ALLOWED IN YOUR POCKET DURING WARM UPS! KEEP THEM WITH YOUR BACKPACK.